“ Olive, Earl and Kenny,
I am so very sorry to hear about Adam's passing. I know you all loved him very much. I have fond memories of my days at Stinesville, and many include you three. Olive, I remember how you would save me extra toffee bars for lunch and help me with my chicken adventures in the classroom. Earl, I remember you attaching a sturdy stump to a cart so the kids could hammer nails in the surface. Kenny, I remember a little, blonde-haired boy with a huge smile who loved to learn. I remember a feisty, curious Adam who set up a whirlwind in class as he moved to experience everything. I know it must be hard to let that whirlwind go, and I wish you peace and love as move through this experience.
