“ We will never forget Uncle Carl and Aunt Sandy. We love them dearly and will miss Uncle Carl and his humor. He was last Uncle we have alive in the Archer/Wolfe lineage but he was our favorite. He helped keep family history alive when we would visit him. He served in Second World War and I believe was in Japan when war ended. I find it hard to accept that he won't be around any more but he was called home by a power greater than ours and is at peace in Jesus's arms. Praise God! Your humble servant, Janice Archer Dodson
