“ Carol and I were fellow members of the Bloomington Neighborhood Group of the American Sewing guild, We had years of fun sewing together. No matter the project, Carol always shared her vast knowledge of sewing techniques. Her attention to detail was unmatched. And just ask her a cooking or baking question, she had method to help solve your problem.
Some ten years or so ago she gave me her beautiful geranium plants at the end of the season. I still have the original plants, cutting starts for new gorgeous plants each year. Her memory lives on in my heart.
