

Charles Burton Butts

October 28, 1923 - September 20, 2012

Charles Burton Butts, 88, of Indianapolis passed away in Bowling Green, KY on September 20, 2012.

Charles "Burt" was born in Marion, IL in 1923. He attended Rose Polytechnic Institute and Purdue University obtaining a degree in Electrical Engineering. He was commissioned as an Ensign in the U.S. Navy Reserves in 1944 serving in the Pacific. He retired as a leader of the Metrology Department of Allison gas Turbine Division of General Motors after a successful career. He hand built the family's first and only home near Southport where they resided for 55 years. He was a member of the Southport United Methodist Church.

During retirement years he enjoyed traveling around the US with his wife Margaret and spending time with his family. He will be greatly missed for his keen intelligence, his steady responsibility, and his great love and pride for his family.

Burt was preceded in death by his wife Margaret Jane Hancock Butts.

He is survived by his children, Mary Jane Brown and husband Don of Alexandria, LA, Martha King and husband David of Bowling Green, KY and Don C. Butts and wife Debra of Atlanta, GA and six grandchildren.
