September 19, 1931 - July 14, 2017

He was born Sept. 19, 1931 in Bloomington to Clarence and Maude (Day) Wright. After serving in the US Navy from 1951 to 1954 he married Georgette Conway and started a family. Some of his accomplishments through the years were designing and building the Life Church, Meadow Wood, Meadow Lands, Meadow Estates, Forest View duplexes, The Woods, Jack and Jill Daycare, and the Overbrooke, West Park and Winter Park subdivisions. He was a follower of Christ and loved supporting different ministries. He felt very strongly about supporting the Jewish International Fellowship that brings Jewish people back to their homeland to be reunited with their families. Charles enjoyed the simple things in life like watching deer, ducks and wild birds on his property.

Charles is survived by his loving wife, Georgette Wright; daughter, Pamela J. “ Unfortunately I have not had that many contacts with my Uncle Charles. in the past years since Grandma and Grandpa's death. Life does that.

I am the oldest daughter of his sister Mary Corbin. I was born in my grandparents house in Ellettsville and lived in or near their home on 1st Street. While Charles was busy going to school, joining the Navy, getting married, I was busy playing games in the back yard and in the neighborhood. On the day of his passing I felt the need to call him but I got sidetracked and didn't. Then at 6:11pm Uncle David texted me and said Charles had passed. When I talked with my sister Marcie she too said she had been thinking about him that day as well. So even though we had not physically spoken, I feel I was emotionally connected.

Be at Peace dear Uncle Charles
