“ Danny was the best husband, father, son, brother, friend, Christian and mechanic/ ironworker I ever knew. He routinely helped fix others problems before taking care of his own. He readily voiced his disappointments when others got down and out but then did all he could to help them get back up and headed in the right direction. I had the pleasure of meeting my friendly neighbor in the year 2000 and within a week we were working together in Beaverton Mi. doing ironworking. this was the beginning of many jobsites, motel rooms shared, fishing outings as far as dale hollow, various hunting outings, camping at many S.R.A.'s. bass boats, pontoons, and sea-doods. Two families became one in our life outings that also included holiday cookouts, home-improvements, and family gatherings. He was warmly accepted at my parents houses and grandparents home. He and I gladly lent a helping to each other in times of need. May the savior you proudly let shine on your arm seat you in the main terrance grandstands with Dale, Neil, Davey, Alan, Kenny, Adam, Fireball, Dick Gaines, and Max Trenta. As you said my man Dell was greatest ever I will now go with Jeff to overtake that title as I root him on to many more victories and championships. When you see me smiling and walking towards you again I want you to show me round the place in your hotrod. In the meantime if your family ever needs help I will be there 2 help. Dan you are the man and I thank you for your unwavering friendship. Till I see you in Glory Brother Dan!

“ My heart hurts for each one of you who loved Danny. I only met him by picking Isiah up for daycare and dropping him off. Danny never failed to make me laugh each trip. Shelby, Isiah would blame you for the things he had done and Danny would just laugh when he tried to blame you. he was very proud of his entire family,, I heard good things about all the kids and it was very obvious he loved his wife. I can relate a little as this happened with my brother. so whatever feelings you have, it's part of it. Anger went thru my entire family. May God be with you all and bring you some form of peace. Many prayers for all of you.

“ Dearest Trenta Family.

Jon and I would like to share our condolences. It became a very sad day as we learned of your loss. Jon spent many years in the National Guards with Danny where they shared many good times and laughter not to mention the times outside of the military. Jon talked about the time Danny met Diana and how he was so happy to have her to share his life with him. He will be sadly missed and often thought of as we will keep him and your family in our prayers. May the angels wrap him in their wings and place him in Gods arms where he will find peace. Love to you all.
