“ DANNY K. WICKENS, my little brother. Wow all the memories I dont know where to start. Just a few things really stand out to me. This one when we went ice skating, no skates now just sliding across the ice when we heard a crack and down into the icy water we went. Grandpa Wickens chewed on us alittle then we sat in front of their pot belly stove to thaw out. Then the time we got bb. guns. We couldnt wait to try them out so we went down in the basement found some mason jars and started shooting. Course the fact they were all full of food didnt bother us, until Dad came. Boy did we get in trouble. So many memories, so much fun, so much love. I'm sure you are in a much better place now, where you will suffer no more. But, if I can be alittle selfish, I sure am gonna miss you.

See ya on the other side, until then I LOVE YOU.

I have the most pleasant memories of Danny, his brothers and his parents and my family sharing great times together as young children at our Lake Lemon cabin. He was a fine man and will be sorely missed by all of us who knew him. RIP Danny.

So sorry for the family's loss. I've thought of you and Danny throughout the years and will cherish the memories made--especially while playing music with him (oh my, the time we had to audition for the Little Nashville Opry!). Wonderful times I'll remember forever. God Bless all.
