I just found out of Deb's passing. I must say it hit my heart. I loved this lady so very much. We was friends in HS and shared a place after HS for a while. She was my inspiration. Such a hard working woman and even as a young lady she always worked like no other. She had a warm heart and a smile that could light up a room. She and I had a lot of fun together. Rest in peace now my friend. We will meet again one day <3

Our memory of your family goes back to the Old Zion Nazarene Church and all the May girls and my two children attended Sunday School and Church there. I KNOW what it's like to lose your mother but I also know that we SHARE a PROMISE that you and I both will see our mothers and loved ones again who place their faith and trust in Jesus Christ....what a peace to have...and in a way..our loved ones are still with us as we live like we were taught...to trust in the Lord 100%. HE is the same today as He was yesterday and the same forever. Thank God for Christian mothers and grandmothers.

“ Such a wonderful mother and friend,, when the girls were younger we would hang out together a lot , then they grew and we didn't have enough time to share anymore.. She always thought of others before herself,, surely will be missed,, but so many good memories left behind for all of us to share.

“ I can close my eyes and see Debbie walking down the corridor at Monroe Hospital delivering a welcomed meal to a patient. Always with a smile. Debbie and I ran into each other at IU Morgan Cancer Center a month ago and spent (30) minutes talking. I cherish that moment, never realizing she would be gone from this earth so soon after. Much sympathy to husband, children, and grandchildren. Heaven is happy to have her.

“ I just wanted to let Tim and the girls know that I feel very grateful to have known Debbie and to be related to her. She was a very remarkable woman, who was always kind and generous to me. And my family and I will greatly miss your mother and wife. And walking in to a bingo parlor just so your Mom and Dad can walk out with all the money. And I know that these words will not ease any of what you are feeling right now but I just hope they help you realize how lucky you are and help you to enjoy her memory some more. Nicky
