

Dianna Sue Bastin

January 1, 1958 - April 30, 2017

Dianna Sue (Rogers) Bastin, 59, of Ellettsville passed away at IU Health-Simon Cancer Center on Sunday, April 30, 2017.

Dianna was born into the home of the late Clark and Marilyn (Welch) Rogers in Muncie, Indiana on January 1, 1958. Dianna began her public service career as a Correctional Officer for Monroe County and then began volunteering with the Ellettsville Fire Department from 1987 to 2002 as the first female fire fighter to fight fires with the department. She worked with the Monroe County Dispatch Center for 17 years as a Public Safety Telecommunicator assisting the residents of Monroe County in their time of need. Dianna loved living in Ellettsville and its small-town charm. Wanting to make a difference in her community she ran for the Ellettsville Town Council and won the election in 2006 and served until her passing. She was a dedicated and caring public servant thinking of the community in every decision she made. Her appreciation to the employees of the Town of Ellettsville was shown every June when she orchestrated the employee appreciation luncheon. Dianna took great pride in her home; tending to her flower gardens. She loved to travel, especially a trip to Europe with her close friends. Her Yorkies, Sophie, Ty, and Mimi were affectionately known as her “babies” and she loved them dearly.

She was preceded in death by her parents and an infant son.

Dianna is survived by her sister, Ruth Ann Burton (Jim) of Bloomfield; brother, Cort Rogers of Muncie; nephew, Chris Burton and niece, Heather Burton all of Bloomfield; aunt, Patsy Smith (Jim) of Muncie; uncle, Bill Welch (Becky) of Gosport; close friend, Angie Leach of Ellettsville; her “Babies” Ty and Mimi; and several cousins.

A Celebration of Life gathering will be held at the Marci Jane Lewis Park main shelter house, 102 East Park Street in Ellettsville on Saturday, July 22, 2017 at 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Chandler Funeral Home in Ellettsville is assisting with the cremation arrangements.

“ I feel so shocked to know my special friend is gone to glory before me. She was there for me since we met in 1989. A true hero in every way! I am humbled to have her as a friend, always rooting me on, through breast and kidney cancer, not to mention my journey with ALS! Always my comforter, cheerleader, and friend! I never knew anyone that loved their hometown as much as you, I admired that love for family and home and friends. You have blessed everyone you met. This world has lost greatly but Heaven has gained and rejoicing with you! God isn't finished with me yet but He said GOOD JOB, WELL DONE, and has given you rest on glory! When my work is done I take comfort in the knowledge we will be in glory together for eternity, until then RIP .
