Dora was quite a lady. Struggled through some tough times but always came out stronger than she went in. She instilled that in her children, and she lives within each one. Another angel has got her wings. She will be missed, and I know she is loved beyond measure by her children. I remember the childhood fun we had at her house, my cousins and I. The snow-cone man, the jewelry boxes full of garage sale finds, the lilac bush which became a secret hideout. Our lives with Dora and my cousins are forever entwined and the memories are life's most precious gifts. My prayers and thoughts go with each of you as you move in to a new year without the Mother you all have known for a lifetime. She will be forever watching..... love you all, Barbara Henderson Spence
