I heard a bell on Christmas morning. Thank you Jesus. An Angel just got her wings. I'm just a poor wayfaring stranger. A traveling through this world of woe. Where there's no sickness, toil or danger in that bright land to which I go. I'm going there to see my Mother. I'm going there. No more to roam. I'm just a going over Jordan, I'm just a going over home. NEVER FORGOTTEN. ALWAYS LOVED AND MISSED. MY BEST FRIEND, YOUR SON JAMES FOLEY and CHERYL ONEAL.

“My name is Rachel Forbes Kaufman from Evansville, IN. Erma and my mother, Virginia Forbes, ate their meals at the same table at the Indiana Masonic Home; so I saw Erma every couple of weeks when I visited my mother. I loved Erma's smile and her new glasses. After my mother had a recent stroke and was moved to the table with Erma, they would roll a small ball back and forth to help my mother recover the use of her right hand. Although Erma had difficulty talking, she clearly understood what was needed to help my mother and looked forward to the pre-meal entertainment of rolling the ball. She always recognized me when I visited and reached her hand out to me, and one day she talked with me, YES talked. She had a wonderful disposition and although she experienced many losses in her life, she still was a joyful person who maintained a sense of personal dignity and compassion for others. She was a strong woman and I am thankful to have known her and for the time she shared her smile with me, and her pre-meal ball rolling skills, to brighten my day and the days of my mother. Rest in peace Erma.,

“ John 11: 25-26

Jesus said to her, " I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live.

"And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die.

P.S. Tell Dad and Nora I said I love and miss them to and we will all be together again. I love you Mom.
