“ To Karen and the whole family. So sorry to hear of Greg's passing. I have many memories of times he and I shared in high school. It is always hard to believe when you hear of things like this. I pray for you all. God is good and he will see you all through this.

“ Thoughts and prayers to all family members. So sad to lose touch when high school ends and then the first you hear of the person is his passing. Will never forget Greg and the smile on his face.

“ Wow. I've often wondered where Greg was after high school. Did not want to find him this way. We skated together at Western Skateland and did what teenagers do. So very sorry for the loss .

Wow-This is a tragic loss especially at such a young age. Jack and Karen-Its been years since we last talked or met. How the years have gone by! It would be good to hear from both of you. E-mail-wmdodds@bluemarble .net
