

James "Jim" Duke Argo

January 4, 1950 - November 8, 2016

James "Jim" Duke Argo passed away at his home in Bloomington, Indiana on Tuesday, November 8, 2016 at the age of 66.

Jim was born in Birmingham, Alabama on January 4, 1950, to Malcolm "Buddy" Marion and Sarah "Libba" Elizabeth (Duke) Argo, Jr. Jim attended Berry High School in Birmingham and Columbia Military Academy in Columbia, Tennessee, where he became an expert marksman. He then attended Auburn University, earning his B.S. in Industrial Engineering in 1971. That same year, Jim earned his airplane pilot's license. Later, he also became a helicopter pilot. An engineer by trade, his passion was flying. He also enjoyed NASCAR and had the privilege of spending time at Talladega Superspeedway and flying with Davey Allison. He enjoyed discussing politics and loved to tell a good story or a joke. More than anything else, aside from family and friends, Jim loved Auburn University. He was an Auburn man to his core and loved watching the Tigers play. He was a devoted family member and a loyal friend.

Jim is survived by his daughter, Erin Elizabeth Argo; his grandson, William "Liam" James Frisz; his sister, Sarah "Sally" Argo Hunt (Horace); his fiancée, JoAnn Jaffe; his nieces and nephews, Christopher Miltenberger (Robyn); Alden Hunt Rosen (Greg); Cynthia Argo; Malcolm Argo, IV; Lara Hunt Smith (Michael); Ann Argo; and Manda Hunt.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Buddy and Libba, and his brother, Malcolm "Mac" Argo, III.

The family will receive friends from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m. at a memorial service on Saturday, December 10, 2016 at 2838 Hwy 30A in Seagrove, Florida.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to either the Cancer Research Institute or Auburn University in Jim's name.
