“ Donnie so sorry Jimanne and I couldn't be there for the celebration of life since we are in Florida now.I know it was wonderful celebration.We have shared so many memories with Jayne Ann when we were younger.We were at her house playing many days including sliding down that great hill in the winter and playing bride in the spring time with all the flowers they always had. We loved being around Jayne Ann because she was always fearless and would always make us laugh. The class of 65 will miss her at our 50th reunion in June.

“ Don, we are so sorry for your loss! Unfortunately, neither of us can attend the Celebration of Life tomorrow. Jim is in Evansville with the IUPUI Hockey team and I'm down with a flu bug. I did want to share this memory of Jayne Ann with you, however -- especially in light of the new Peter Pan film that was just aired a couple of days ago. . .

I spent the night with Jayne Ann several times when we were kids. I think we were around 8 or 9 on this particular night, and the original Peter Pan movie with Mary Martin was playing. Jayne Ann and I watched intently and didn't see why we couldn't fly too if we just practiced and tried hard enough. We spent the rest of the evening jumping off Norma's furniture trying to spring into flight. We did consider jumping off the top of the stairway railing but decided that might be pushing our luck. From that night to this very day, when I see or hear anything about Peter Pan I think of Jayne Ann. Maybe she can fly now.
