“ Jeri,

Thinking of you and your family on this Sunday night. Holding on to the memories we all shared when we were just kids...In the washing machine of life, it sometimes feels like we forget to add the softener.

“ For all of my Mother's friends who would like to attend the memorial service, due to Thanksgiving, it is being planned for December 8th at 1pm at Arlington Methodist Church in Bloomington IN. Nothing set in stone but that's what we are hoping to do. There will be food and at the end of the service there will be a releasing of balloons to symbolize her soul being lifted and set free. I hope many of you can make it. And just a reminder that this is a positive event. We all know she had a troubled past but she is a peace and was a wonderful person with a very lovable personality. The past is in the past and I want her to be remembered as the good person she truly was. Thank you. RIP Momma, I love you! - forever your daughter.

“ My parents called to tell me of Jeri's passing. I am so sorry to the family for your loss. I grew up across the street from Jeri, Todd, and Cheryl on Cedar Drive. Jeri, Lisa Sullivan, and I used to hang out when we lived there, playing with Barbies and picking on Sean. I have such fond memories of Jeri's smile and laugh. I think my mom still has the Barbie things I bought from her for $25! I will be praying for God to comfort you all.

“ I opened the paper and saw Jeri's picture yesterday. I last saw her at a class reunion, but grew up across the street from her on Cedar Dr. She always seemed more like a cousin or sister to me growing up. She was always very sweet and my memories of her will be her smile and hug. So sorry to her family and my prayers are with you.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with all of Jeri's children and family. I loved Jeri so much. She was one of my best friends growing up. I don't know how to say good-bye to her. Whether we were apart a day or years whenever we talked it was as if no time has passed....we could pick up right where we left off. I have so many memories that I will never forget. I will always remember my sweet Jer-Ber with a smile. You will be missed my dear friend. I pray that you are at peace. God Bless!
