

Jerry G. McCormick

July 18, 1943 - August 9, 2016

Jerry G. McCormick, 73, of Bloomington passed away peacefully at his home on Tuesday, August 9, 2016.

He was born on July 18, 1943 in Kennett, MO. Jerry proudly served his country in the Army as a Sergeant in the Vietnam War. He retired from G and E Homes, was a carpenter, painter, and jack of all trades. He could and would build anything he fancied. He was a hard worker and proud to say he earned everything he ever owned. Some of his hobbies included, but were not limited to, mushroom hunting and hunting in general, front porch sitting while listening to his favorite classic country music, (if you were lucky enough, you got to hear him sing now and then, he had a talent for it, though he wouldn't admit it) but most of all he was known as a fisherman. He loved fishing! He made fishing trips as often as he could to Canada, but lake Monroe never let him down. He once said he felt closest to God out on the water and that was his church. Whether he was out on his boat, or fishing off the banks, he was content and doing what he truly enjoyed. However, nothing started his day off better than coffee at 5 a.m. with friends at the Cloverleaf. In fact, he was waiting in the parking lot before they opened, more often than not. 30 minutes early was on time to him and if you were 5 minutes late meeting him anywhere, especially to fish, he'd leave without you. He was more than punctual. He was a good hearted, honest, loving, caring, and one of the kind. They don't make them like that anymore.

You are and always be loved, missed and remembered for the smile, laughter, memories and loving embrace you bestowed upon your family and friends.

Pap, this poem is for you, Love Jo.

“God saw you getting tired, and a cure was not to be. So he put his arms around you and whispered, “Come to Me”. A golden heart stopped beating, hardworking hands at rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, he only takes the best. Author Unknown.

There will be no services at Jerry’s request. Chandler Funeral Home in Ellettsville is assisting with arrangements.

“ I was sorry to hear about Jerry. He was my cousin, and I remember him when we were growing up. As we got older I did not see him much. I saw him at a few family reunions and always enjoyed visiting with him. I will always remember him. I thought he resembled my dad. May God bless and comfort you at this time of loss.

“ Jerry was a mess! He was my favorite cousin, I love him so much. He came to my house in Missouri for a few days and I was working, but he and my husband did somethings together. He brought some fish he had caught. I told him, "I want my supper ready when I get home"...just kidding with him. When I got home from work the fish, hush puppies, and everything was ready for supper. He did this everyday he was visiting. I got the biggest kick out of him. He was always laughing, joking, and happy. He was truly a good person and I miss him terribly.

“ We met Jerry because we had purchased our home from G & S Homes. He was an intelligent, thoughtful person. My husband and I were so thankful for his skill in helping us over multiple years keeping up with the needed and normal repairs of our home. He was trustworthy and kind and we felt fortunate to know him. His character and judgment were impeccable. His obituary was well written and reminded me of our conversations. He spoke about his love for his family and how proud he was of them. He was the best and I am so sorry for your loss. We will remember him as one in a million.

“ We're very sorry to hear of Jerry's passing. Jerry was multi-talented, hard working, and conscientious, but he was more than a trusted and valued employee. Jerry was a friend. We'll miss you Jerry.
