

Jerry L Trisler

July 16, 1934 - June 30, 2013

Jerry L. Trisler, 78, of Bloomington passed away on Sunday, June 30, 2013 at Richland Bean Blossom Health Care Center.

Jerry was born on July 16, 1934 in Bloomington to Melvin Wayne, Sr. and Margarite (Akers) Trisler. He was married to Janice (Kasper) Trisler on November 26, 1955. Jerry served in the U.S. Navy during the Korean War. When he returned from the war he worked as a Maintenance Engineer at the Poplars Research and Conference Center at Indiana University until his retirement. He was a member of the Bedford American Legion Post #33 and the Ellettsville First Baptist Church. Jerry enjoyed his family and spent many hours fishing and hunting with the boys.

He was preceded in death by his parents and sister, Sue Evans.

Jerry is survived by his wife, Janice Trisler of Bloomington; sons, Terry Trisler and girlfriend, Miranda Gill of Bloomington and Doug Trisler of Bloomington; brother, Wayne Trisler and wife Susie of Bloomington; and sister, Jackie Trisler of Columbus.

Services will be held at a later date. Chandler Funeral Home in Ellettsville is assisting with cremation.

Tribute Wall

MS

“ My dear friend Doug, brother Terry and your mother, my deepest sympathies in your time of loss. -Marilyn Stonecipher

Marilyn Stonecipher - July 02, 2013 at 10:47 AM