

John Terrance Stinson

October 18, 1959 - April 11, 2013

John Terrance Stinson, 53 of Freedom passed away at his residence on Thursday, April 11, 2013.

John was born in Denver, Colorado on October 18, 1959; he was the son of Troy and Juanita (Ramsey) Stinson. He worked manufacturing electrical cords until his illness prevented him from working. John loved fishing and collecting dragons and swords. His dog Harley was his constant companion and could be seen with him on his scooter riding around the area.

John is survived by his siblings, Troy Stinson of Bedford, Tarry Hart of Mitchell, Pamela Lyon of Freedom, Alva Stinson of Bloomington, Tory Stinson of Oolitic, and Tray Stinson of Indianapolis; several nieces and nephews and his pug, Harley.

Graveside inurnment services will be held at Mt. Olive Cemetery in Williams on Sunday, April 21, 2013 at 1:00 p.m. with Brother Millard Jones officiating.