Wolfy, I will never forget the memories we made here and in Blairsville. Words cant explain how bad I feel. You had an amazing talent with cars, and you had a imagination like no one else. Now I'm looking at pictures from the past only to wish that we were still in Pennsylvania rolling on the floor in laughter watching Dave chapelle. You may be gone but my memories of our times together will live on until I see you agian my friend. I'm really sorry this happened rhonda and bob. Always know your son was one of the most creative and talented individuals I knew when it came to vehicles and his accomplishments will live on forever. With my condolences, Ryan Tharp.
