“ It is still very fresh Granny's passing. She was the back bone of the family. Everyone said we will never play music here or have a cook out again. So far we haven't. I don't think anyone is strong enough yet. Maybe next summer. We love and miss u very much.

“ When we were little, I remember going to Aunt Julie's and Uncle Gene's. Family and friends would gather in from all over the place ... In the holler they would build a massive bonfire and play music and sing...What great memories!!! We'd go to Stinesville at the train truss and fish all night sometime... Aunt Julie will be missed!!!

“ So sorry for the loss of Aunt Julie! Always remember your house smelling like coffee, bacon, wood stove, etc, and we miss those smells. We miss your warm loving smile and big hugs. We also miss sitting around listening to you and Uncle Gene playing music, all your rabbits & chickens you used to have, etc. It's funny how when your little you may not think those type of memories can impact you, but they did to us and have stuck with us for a lifetime. Our sincerest sympathy and prayers to Uncle Gene and family.
