Ken, I will always miss the times we talk to each other about sports, it's hard now knowing your gone, I told you I wanted you to stick around with me awhile, but I see the good Lord had other plans for you. you would of loved the Super Bowl this year the first time ever a Super Bowl went into overtime man you would of loved it. Patriots beat the Falcons 34-28. Was waiting for your call after the game for your thoughts on the game. Mom is taking it bad right now bud, only time can help heal with all my Brothers being gone but although you are gone you are never forgotten. I love you Kenny and I miss you very much!!!!

You Brother

“Kenny was my first friend when we moved down the street from his family. He taught me how to play Basketball and he would always beat me because he was older and bigger and stronger. But we had some Great memories and I loved him and i will always miss him! Great guy and we loved to talk about sports! Prayers for Jean and family!
