“ Please accept my caring and sympathy at the loss of Leah. I was her hospice volunter and friend during her time at Bell Trace. At first she didn't talk much, but things progressed. One day, anything either of us said seemed funny. We laughed and laughed for a long time. Finally,the said "You're silly," and then we laughed some more. For the last month, I stayed with her through lunch to encourage her to eat.

She had a long life - I can't imagine how she lived so long as a widow. But I know she was loved by her family.

Sincerely,
