“ I remember a lot of good times with Mark he was the nicest guy and would do anything for anyone. The one memory that sticks with me is going swimming at the quarry (Blue hole) and hanging out on wolf mountain all the time.

“ I know Mark has passed away but just looking at this pic makes me smile. We spent so much time in the woods growing up, caving, ginseng hunting and trapping. He was my best friend growing up and into my 20's, never lost contact with each other. It's not a time of mourning, God has more grace than most realize. I'm still smiling.
