“ Mike was not only my best friend's father, he was a coach and a mentor. When we were in 3rd and 4th grade he was our softball coach. And as a coach he taught all of us girls how to react and act as a team and in turn as a family. And then growing up, any time we would stop by the Farr house, and he would always be there to make you laugh or give advice. I am thankful everyday for the family I gained while on his softball teams and growing up, they have become lifelong friends.
