“ Myra had a smile that radiated warmth like a wood stove on a winter night. Her sweet nature drew you into friendship with her like quicksand, Her spirit and love of life was as lively as a Saturday night dance and her love of God was as reverent as a beautiful clear autumn Sunday morning. She was my friend and I will miss her greatly. I see the pictures in the tribute and know that this is how she is now...young, vibrant, full of life, cherishing family, and feeling no pain, no sorrow, no regrets, and no despair.

My heartfelt condolences to Bud and the entire family for your loss of her company for now. Her certainty of heaven and its rewards must be encouragement for you all. God's blessings and all comfort to you all.

“ Mamaw Myra was one of the greatest influences in my life. Whether it was taking me to Sunday School, showing up for "Grandparents Day" when I was in school or being a listening ear in later years, I always knew she was there for me. She didn't judge people or think she was above others, when she saw someone who was struggling she remembered them in prayer and her example is one we should all strive to emulate. Christmas Eve nights and Christmas mornings with Mamaw and Papaw will always be some of my fondest memories. Fly high with the angels, Mamaw. You will be forever in my heart.

“ My husband and I met Bud and Myra at Stoneybrook Community Church of God while they attended church there. Myra had a beautiful voice and loved to hear her sing her specials on Sundays. She gave the best hugs ever! Dan and I love you Myra so much...now you are in our Lord and saviors arms and suffer no more. Our thoughts and prayers are with Bud and your family.
