“ Patsy, It seems we just keep hanging under those darn clouds. We can't escape them but we have our friendship and memories to keep us going. Know that I am always here for you, you have been like one of my own and we sure have been through alot together. God must have had plans when he brought us together. I know I have been so grateful to have known you and your family. Stay strong sweetheart, and as always; Keep those memories close to your heart!! Love, Marilyn(mom #2)
