

Phillip Jones

March 28, 1949 - May 2, 2017

Phil Jones, 68, of Gosport passed away at Methodist Hospital in Indianapolis following a lengthy illness on Tuesday, May 2, 2017.

Phil was born in Bloomington on March 28, 1949 to the late Floyd and Rosalyn (Young) Jones. Phil worked as a car salesman selling Chevrolet's all his working years. Phil was passionate about his multiple Chevrolet muscle cars. His most enjoyable times were spent shooting pool, picking guitar and singing with his family and many good friends. Prior to arriving all invited would know that Phil would have steaks ready to come off the grill to start the night off.

The family would like to extend their sincere gratitude to Phil's friend, Danny, who became a wonderful caregiver during his time of need.

He was preceded in death by his parents; grandparents, Ike and Marguerite Young of Gosport and his brother, Johnny Jones.

Phil is survived by his loving wife of 25 years, Celia (Hacker) Jones; daughter, Lori Dike and two grandchildren, Easton and Sidney all of Bloomington; sister, Sheryl Jones of Gosport; three nieces and their husbands; seven great-nieces and great-nephew and many close friends.

Visitation will be held at Chandler Funeral Home-Whitaker Chapel in Gosport on Saturday, May 6, 2017 from 12:00 until 4:00. A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

I have known Phil since the 1964 our paths have crossed many times. He told me when he retires he was going to sit on the porch and watch cars go by. What a terrible loss. Phil Campbell
