“ I have known Phyllis since I was a kid when she lived across the street. Phyllis was friends with my sister and we did exercises in our back yard. As an adult we have laughed and shared those happy days. She was a delight to know, so pretty with her sweet smile and happy hugs. You will miss her I know. In time I pray all of the fun happy times will bring you peace as you carry your Mother's love for each of you with you always. God bless. Joyce Jackson

“ Dear 2nd Mom Phyllis,

Can you say Hello to Derek. Give him a big hug. We will all miss you. What great memories you gave us. Truly funny lady you were always laughing, that is when you were not reprimanding us for something. And we never deserved it, the angels that we were. Bless you Mom number two. How you will be missed. Love to Terri.
