“ Two of my best memories of Rachael are while I was waiting for my first disability check my step -dad died and I didn't have the money to get my mother any flowers for the funeral, Rachel reached out to me and offered to loan me the money to buy her something. I ended up getting my mom a beautiful music box that housed some flowers and played Amazing Grace. That was an unexpected blessing . The other time was the day she left to go to N.C. to see her son graduate from high school. She was so excited. She stopped by to say hi and show me the car she just bought and as she was leaving gave me and my mom a hug and kiss good bye. She was like the little sister I never had and me and my family will miss her terribly. All of our prayers go out to her family. May God give you strength and comfort in your time of sorrow. Sincerely, Sandi Strunk
