She was born in Kentucky on February 19, 1942, to Clarence and Myrtle Anderson and was raised in Patricksburg. Ruth graduated from Patricksburg High School. Ruth retired from Harman-Becker in Martinsville.

“ Dear Ruth's light was so bright. I can't believe I'll never hug her again. She would come to our food pantry, and it would brighten my day so much to see her. She was always full of love and smiles, even through tears. She loved her family so much. I know you will miss her so much more than just a church secretary who only got to meet her four times, but she made a deep impression on my heart. Thank you for giving her so much joy, and I will keep you in my prayers.
