

Sagrario Rivera

May 7, 2013

Sagrario Rivera, age 74, of Crown Point, passed away on Tuesday, May 7, 2013 at IU Health-Bloomington Hospital.

Sagrario, known to her friends as Chayo, was born in San Luis Potosi, Mexico. She immigrated to the United States at a young age of with her family. Sagrario married Rolando Rolando Rivera in 1961 with whom she had been companion-in-life with for over 50 years. Filled with compassion and interest in others, she made friends easily and maintained contact with many. She was active in raising six children and active in the churches she attended. She and her husband were members of Living Stones Fellowship in Crown Point for the past 30 years. She was a hard worker and respected by everyone she befriended. Her strong will to live, unwavering faith in God, and the love and prayers of family, friends, and many supporters carried her through many months after her hospitalization. Throughout her life she maintained a sweet and simple demeanor that won the trust and hearts of many, who even now are being changed by her witness of constant nurturing love and faith. Her signature gift of joy, shown through her constant smiling, laughter, and joking around, will never be forgotten. The wisdom she passed on to many will never be forgotten and is still changing lives. She was loved and appreciated by all that knew her and she will be greatly missed.

Sagrario is survived by six children: Joshua and his wife, Taryn and their five children, Deborah, Lydia and her husband, Dean, Ruben, David, and Nohemi.

Memorial services were held on Saturday, May 11 at 6:00 P.M. at Emmanuel Baptist Church. Chandler Funeral Home in Ellettsville assisted with arrangements.

Donations may be made to the family through Emmanuel Baptist Church, Bloomington Indiana.
