“ I am sorry for your loss of Sharon. I ran across her obituary by accident while looking for some lost classmates of mine from high school for a reunion. I always wondered what had happened to her. I remember this photo well. We went to school together at Lopossa and were in 4-H together. She lived only a short distance down the road from me when we were children, and I was at her house for a 4-H meeting when our barn caught fire. I remember running all the way home when it was discovered. She was a very sweet girl with the cutest smile!

“ Most of my memories of Aunt Sharon are when i was much younger. We grow up, have families of our own, and life gets in the way of staying close. I remember her laugh, her smile. She babysat us when we were small, and introduced us to American Bandstand. I watched her get ready for dates, putting layers and layers of "can cans" on beneath her skirt. I watched her brush and fluff the angora yarn wrapped around the class ring of her steady. And she made the best cocoa toast, lavished with real home made butter and taught us the best way to eat it was to dunk it in the cocoa. She took the time some years back to being her granddaughter to my house to play with my daughter and visit. Aunt Sharon was kind, loving, and compassionate and will be missed by many
