

Tamara D. Crowe

December 6, 1966 - July 22, 2013

Tamara (Tammy) Dawnelle Crowe, 46, of rural Bloomfield died peacefully Monday, July 22 at her home.

Born December 6, 1966 in Monroe County, Tammy was the daughter of Judith Carnahan Hancock and Richard Hancock. She married Brent D. Crowe on November 18, 1989. After being diagnosed with cancer in 2007, Tammy fought a courageous battle against the disease with faith, natural and conventional medicines. After her long six year battle, Tammy is now free at last. Tammy was a faithful, active member of the Lifeway Baptist Church, playing the piano and teaching Sunday school classes. She worked in several local jobs before becoming a stay-at-home mom and home-schooling her 3 children. She studied Natural Medicines and earned a degree in Naturopathy from Trinity College of Natural Health.

Tammy is survived by her husband of 24 ½ years, Brent; her three children, Hanah, Blake, and Clint, all still at home; her mother, Judith Hancock of Montezuma; her two sisters, Tressa and husband Steve Earley of Montezuma; Jana and husband Glenn “Chops” Hayden-Haltom of Noblesville; one brother Mike and wife Cathy Hancock of Bloomington; several nieces and nephews: Mackenzie and Braydon Crowe of Bloomington; A. J. Earley of Evanston; Andy Earley of Montezuma; Jayci Goewert of New Jersey; and Cody, Cheyenne, Laramie, and Casey Hancock of Bloomington; 2 great-nieces and 2 great-nephews: Avery Briddick, Addie Jo Early, Jaxon and Marley Goewert.

She was preceded in death by her father.

Funeral services will be 11:00 am Friday, July 26, 2013 at Lifeway Baptist Church with Pastor Steve Vonbokern officiating. Burial is to follow at Walnut Grove Cemetery in Bloomfield. Family and friends may call from 4:00 to 8:00 pm on Thursday, July 25 at Lifeway Baptist Church and one hour before the funeral service on Friday. Chandler Funeral Home in Ellettsville is assisting with arrangements.

The family asks that memorial contributions be made to the IU Health Hospice in lieu of flowers.

“ Brent and family, Just wanted you to know that our thought and prayers are with you during this time. Sorry to hear of the passing of Tammy -- she fought a long hard battle, but now she isn't suffering anymore . . . . know that she is always as close as a memory and the God of all comfort is as close as a prayer.
