“ I have lot's of memories with Aunt Terri, of course I got to grow up with her twins, Michelle & Shelly because we were only 9 days apart and we were inseparable until we were older. We shared our birthday parties. My aunt is the one that introduced me to the Salvation Army and it was the best thing that ever happened to me. Now, some great memories: I will never forget the time I was at her house and we were in the kitchen getting ready to eat cereal and the milk was spoiled, and she told us to eat it anyone, did I, heck no. Then there was a time that they used to cook frog legs and I would think that is just gross, well Alan said here just try it, it takes like chicken and yep it sure did but I never ate them again after that night. One last memory of my Aunt Terri: is the time she lived on Cory Lane in the trailer court and my grandma was there, I wanted to go in and visit with her, (one because it was really hot out that day and two because I wanted to see her) anyway, Terri locked us girls out of the house and wouldn't let us in. So, I got really upset and said I am walking home, does anyone want to go with me. Well of course, my good 'ole sidekick, Shelly, said, "I'll go", we tried to persuade Michelle but she was a chicken and wouldn't go. Anyway, Shelly and I started walking down Bloomfield road towards Eller road and were picked up by a police man. He drove us to my house and my mom passed us on her way up the lane and seen us in the car, so she turned around. The police was speaking to my mom and then she called Terri and said do you know where the girls are? And of course, Terri said, they are outside. Mom said no they are not, they are standing right her next to me, just got brought her by a police man. Those were the days..... Terri will be missed dearly...RIH AUNT TERRI, WE LOVE YOU!!!!

“ Oh there was so many memories but I can remember one she always reminded me of. We were driving down Hwy 45 from Greene county. That huge curve (they have now fixed) was icy, snowy and as we approached it her big ole car (She always drove one) spun around, full donut. She said I looked at her and said "let's do that again, Aunt teri!". Hahaha, she told me hell no, we are going back home. I won't ever forget that story and so many other memories she and I had. I love u!

“ Terri was the best sister. Our best memory was sharing pregnancies at the same time, our girls, mine Shanna, and hers, Michelle and Shelly were born just 9 days before Shanna. When she had her girls ' I went straight to my doctor and wanted to make sure I WASN'T having twins. Loved Terri with all my heart but she is with our mother, grandmother, her daughter, and my son and I am sure there is a party in Heaven now.
