“ Mike was a good man. He has been part of our family here on birthdays, graduations, births and deaths. My children knew him as Uncle Mike. He was our sons first baby sitter and even took off work one day when I had my grand baby and he rode to Indianapolis with my husband Jeremy and I. He sat out in the truck holding my grand baby because we had a meeting and could not take the baby inside with us. He has been there at the drop of a hat. He will be sadly missed by all. The Family is in our prayers as you go through this hard time.
